

1. 5. 2006

Twenty three nations have entered the second European Mixed Curling Championships to be held in Claut, Italy between 17th and 21st October. This is the same number as last year, though Austria, Kazakhstan, Lithuania and Norway are new entries taking the place of Andorra, Croatia, England and Luxembourg who have not entered this year.

Once all the entries have been confirmed by payment of the newly imposed entry fee of 200 Euros the draw will be made and published on this website.