

21. 9. 2006

The city of Füssen, GER, will host the 2007 Le Gruyere AOC European Curling Championships (ECC) between the 1st and 8th December. This will be the second time, after 1997, that the city of Füssen, situated at the southern end of the Romantic Road and in the heart of one of the finest holiday areas in the entire Alpine region, will host the ECC and it will be the 6th time that the event will have taken place in Germany. The 2007 event will mark the 33rd edition of the European Curling Championships.