Congratulations to Scotland on winning the 2006 European Mixed Championships with an 8-4 defeat of home nation, Italy in the Final. Russia defeated Sweden for the bronze medal. For results, rankings and details about the teams please click HERE

You read it here first in our preview - The hot favourites this year must be Scotland skipped by former World Junior Champion Tom Brewster with former World Champions, Jackie Lockhart and David Hay at third and second.

And so it proved as they went undefeated through the tournament.
