

29. 1. 2009

The city of Sofia (BUL), which has already successfully hosted the World Junior Curling Championships 1994 as well as the European Curling Championships 2004, has reconfirmed its interest in hosting the European Curling Championships in 2011.

The successor of the host cities 2008 Örnköldsvik (SWE), 2009 Aberdeen (SCO) and Champéry (SUI) will be determined during the ECF meetings to be held in December 2008 in Örnköldsvik, SWE, i.e. three years prior to the event in 2011.

Bids to host the ECC 2011 may be presented to the ECF until October 31, 2008 and all ECF member nations are herewith invited to do so. The official ECF bid-guidelines can be obtained directly from the ECF Secretariat.