

6. 4. 2010

The European Curling Federation (ECF) announced today that the European Mixed Curling Championship 2010 (EMCC) as well as the European Curling Championship (ECC) C-group will take place at Greenacres (Howwood), Scotland.

The dates of this combined event will be confirmed very soon. The exact length of the ECC C-group competition as well as its playing format can only be confirmed once all entries have been received. (Deadline: May 31st, 2010)

At the same time the European Curling Federation announced that the ECC 2011 will be granted to Russia's capital Moscow subject to the approval of our TV production team.

Expressions of interest to host future ECF events have been received as follows:

EMCC 2011 Copenhagen, DEN
ECC 2012 Karlstad, SWE
ECC 2013 Zug, SUI