The kick-off events of the European Curling Federation (ECF) in the Curling season 2011/2012 - the European Mixed Curling Championships (EMCC) 2011 and the European Curling Championships C-group (ECC-C) 2011 at Taarnby, Denmark - are under way!

25 nations are competing in the EMCC and a record number of participants (10 nations in the women's and 9 nations in the men's section) are fighting for the two top spots in each section, as those are a qualifying ticket for the B-group of the Le Gruyere European Curling Championships 2011 at Moscow, Russia.
